

INVESTMENT COMMITTEE MEMBER

ROLE DESCRIPTION

The Investment Committee is an expert Committee with responsibility for overseeing the management of the RCN Foundation Investment portfolio.

We are looking for one or more independent advisers to the Committee who are not on the Board of Trustees to join the Committee.

Experience and Qualities

A financial background ideally from the investment industry

Must have significant investment expertise

Experience of formulating investment policies and implementation strategies, transactions and performance

Experience with and an understanding of investment statements and reporting, including portfolio and wider industry and sector benchmarks

Experience of investment markets

An understanding of the concept of the trade-off between risk and reward

An understanding of broad economic conditions and key economic indicators such as inflation, interest rates and bond yields and their impact on investments

Experience of ethically responsible investment policies

Experience of distributing income from the investment portfolio across the different funds

Experience of appointment of investment managers/working with consultants/investment managers

The ability to ask probing questions about the charities financial risks and accounting